

Dragon's Going Down (F#m) – Revelation 12

CHORUS

F#m

Soon and very soon the serpent shall be silent

Bm C# F#m

That dragon's goin' down

VERSE 1

F#m

The serpent curs-ed more than any living thing

F#m

Hostility toward the woman, for the serpent knew something

F#m

That his kingdom would be crushed by a Great and Mighty king

F#m

The Shepherd with a scepter would do the ruling

VERSE 2

The woman had a Seed that when was fully grown

Could with His life reverse the curse and death would be overthrown

So the dragon licked his chops, chomping for some flesh and bone

But child of the woman was caught up to God's very own throne

VERSE 3

See, the prophecy of old was told of a virgin birth

So the dragon swiped his tail, and the deceived fell to the earth

But the very heel he strikes will be the serpent's doom

The Christ who died and was crucified was risen from the tomb

VERSE 4

All of Eve's children beaten and abused

Come lend an ear, let me tell you the news!

The prison doors are open now, and the fetters have been loosed

The Accuser of brethren now stands accused

CHORUS 2

Soon and very soon that ancient serpent shall be silenced

The dragon's goin' down
