

Song Of Woe (Gm) – Revelation 9

VERSE 1

Gm F Eb Gm F Eb
The fifth angel's trumpet has sounded, Abaddon has fallen from heaven
Gm F Eb Gm – F – Eb
And unto him was given the key to the abyss
Gm F Eb Gm F Eb
The sky which once shone clean and clear, thick black darkness filled the atmosphere
Gm F Eb Gm F Eb
Even the sun was choked from smoke of the abyss Woe, Woe

VERSE 2

Stinging locusts were released, make a man wanna die but death just seems to flee
Breastplates of iron with lion's teeth from the abyss Woe, Woe
Wings with the sound of chariots, tails that pierce like scorpions
Power to torment men for five months from the abyss Woe, Woe

And just when you think that it is done, one woe down, but surely two to come
Angel, the sixth speaks a sickening sound, "Release the four angels Euphrates-bound"
Bound until the appointed time, bound to kill a third of mankind
Fire and smoke and brimstone plague rained upon the human slain

VERSE 4

And even after all of these things, the idols they worshiped they kept worshipping
The sinners would not confess their sins, and turn away from their wickedness
The hearts of men are growing cold, like Pharaoh and Egypt in the days of old
History tends to repeat itself I'm told
